La Chérie Weddings

She delivered a premium experience. Anyone who hadn't spoken to her had no way to know.

Luxury Weddings • Memphis, TN • Full Brand System • 30 Days

THE PROBLEM

La Chérie Weddings was fully booked through referrals. The events were editorial-quality. Couples were deeply loyal. None of that was visible to anyone discovering the business online.

The website read like a placeholder. There was no brand language reflecting the real experience, no visible offer structure. A first-time visitor had no way to understand what La Chérie delivers or why it costs what it costs.

WHY IT MATTERED

Every non-referral visitor was starting from zero. The site gave no evidence of the premium experience behind it. No guided path to an inquiry. No trust signals.

The gap between reputation and online presence was costing the business leads it had already earned.

THE CLARITY AUDIT

We scored four layers of the business system. Every layer was underperforming relative to the quality of the actual work.

Signal	Messaging	2 → 7
Gravity	Offer	1 → 7
Orbit	Path to Action	2 → 8
Thrust	Visibility	1 → 6

SYSTEM MOMENTUM SCORE

Operating at 16% of potential.

1.6 → 7.0

WHAT WE BUILT

The brand system was built from the way La Chérie already works with couples. Every element was designed to make new visitors feel the same confidence that referrals already had.

- 38-page Brand Guidelines document
- Brand voice and messaging framework
- Portfolio gallery with editorial layout
- SEO foundation with schema and sitemap
- Full website redesign and build
- Service tier structure and pricing model
- Inquiry flow redesign (4 clicks to 1)
- Mobile-first responsive implementation

WHAT CHANGED

- New visitors identify what La Chérie does and why it's different within seconds of landing
- The visual identity and content now match the in-person experience
- Offer structure and pricing context are accessible from the homepage
- Path from landing to inquiry went from four clicks to one

FOUNDER PERSPECTIVE

> "Jordan took what felt overwhelming and turned it into something clear, beautiful, and genuinely easy to trust. Seeing the site come together made me feel as proud of my business online as I do when everything comes together on a wedding day."
